Dear Parents and Carers,

Regretfully, I am writing to you to inform you that Mrs Abbas will be leaving Castilion Primary School at the end of the first half of the Autumn Term. This means if your child is in Y3/Y4Simms&Abbas, Mrs Abbas will no longer be their teacher as of today. Mrs Abbas has found the house of her dreams for herself and her family, which is lovely for her. Unfortunately, her new house is far too far away from Castilion Primary School to remain a teacher here.

You may also have noticed that Mrs Simms is pregnant. The arrival of this exciting new addition to her family is imminent. Mrs Simms official last day at Castilion Primary School, before she begins her maternity leave, will be the 18th November. Fortunately, Mrs Islam is due to return from her maternity leave on the 19th November. This means that the current Y3/Y4Simms&Abbas class, will become Y3/Y4Islam as of the 19th of November. Mrs Islam is coming into school for few handover days with Mrs Simms before she takes over as teacher of the class to ensure she has a full understanding of the needs of the children and the curriculum coverage that has already taken place.

I would like to thank both Mrs Abbas and Mrs Simms for their hard work and commitment to outcomes for children's learning. I would also like to wish them every happiness and success in their new endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Y. Bishop
Principal Castilion Primary School
